Calculator: No calculator, computational device or software will ever be allowed on any test or quiz

Prerequisites: The prerequisites for this class is Calculus 2 (Math 221)

Class Schedule: Class meets on Zoom at the listed time. Each class will be a problem session. Students are required to have cameras turned on and be able to show work on camera. Students will be placed into breakout rooms of two or three students to talk and work on the problems together. The session will end with a short quiz.

The lectures will be pre-recorded. The lectures for the week will be posted on Monday of that week. Students are expected to watch the first two sections before Tuesday and the rest before Thursday.
Grading

Attendance: 10% When you join the Zoom meeting type 'hi' in the chat, then type 'bye' before you leave.

Homework: 15% Online homework is on Canvas. You must follow the link through Canvas.

Quizzes: 15% Classes will end with a short quiz on review material from previous sessions or important material from Calc 1 or 2.

Exams: 30% Midterm and Final have same weight and length. After the midterm you may earn up to 50% of the lost points by identifying and correcting mistakes. You will have a limited number of days and then solutions will be posted.
The Final will focus on material covered after the midterm but will be cumulative in the sense that problems may have steps that require concepts or techniques from the first half.

Final Grade: Letter grades will be assigned as 90% = A, 80% = B, 70% = C, 60% = D, below 60% = F.

Missed Exams: If you expect to miss a midterm exam for a legitimate reason (illness or hospitalization, for example), please notify the Office of Student Life (https://www.k-state.edu/studentlife/) and your instructor as soon as possible to schedule an alternate time to take the midterm or final. It is your responsibility to discuss the situation with your instructor should your personal situation suggest this as a possibility.

K-STATE HONOR CODE, ETC.:

Statement Regarding Academic Honesty: Kansas State University has an Honor and Integrity System based on personal integrity, which is presumed to be sufficient assurance that, in academic matters, one's work is performed honestly and without unauthorized assistance. Undergraduate and graduate students, by registration, acknowledge the jurisdiction of the Honor and Integrity System. The policies and procedures of the Honor and Integrity System apply to all full and part-time students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate courses on-campus, off-campus, and via distance learning. The Honor and Integrity System website can be reached via the following URL: https://www.k-state.edu/honor/. A component vital to the Honor and Integrity System is the inclusion of the Honor Pledge which applies to all assignments, examinations, or other course work undertaken by students. The Honor Pledge is implied, whether or not it is stated: "On my honor, as a student, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this academic work." A grade of XF can result from a breach of academic honesty. The F indicates failure in the course; the X indicates the reason is an Honor Pledge violation.

Statement Regarding Students with Disabilities Students with disabilities who need classroom accommodations, access to technology, or information about emergency building/campus evacuation processes should contact the Student Access Center and/or their instructor. Services are available to students with a wide range of disabilities including, but not limited to, physical disabilities, medical conditions, learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, depression, and anxiety. If you are a student enrolled in campus/online courses through the Manhattan or Olathe campuses, contact the Student Access Center at accesscenter@k-state.edu, 785-532-6441; for K-State Polytechnic campus, contact Academic and Student Services at polytechnicadvising@ksu.edu or call 785-826-2974.

Statement Defining Expectations for Classroom Conduct All student activities in the University, including this course, are governed by the Student Judicial Conduct Code as outlined in the Student Governing Association By Laws, Article V, Section 3, number 2. Students who engage in behavior that disrupts the learning environment may be asked to leave the class.

Academic Freedom Statement Kansas State University is a community of students, faculty, and staff who work together to discover new knowledge, create new ideas, and share the results of their scholarly inquiry with the wider public. Although new ideas or research results may be controversial or challenge established views, the health and growth of any society require a frank intellectual exchange. Academic freedom protects this type of free exchange and is thus essential to any university’s mission. Moreover, academic freedom supports collaborative work in the pursuit of truth and the dissemination of knowledge in an environment of inquiry, respectful debate, and professionalism. Academic freedom is not limited to the classroom or to scientific and scholarly research but extends to the life of the university as well as to larger social and political questions. It is the right and responsibility of the university community to engage with such issues.
