Request for Permission to take Math 999, Ph.D. Research

This form is only required the first time a student enrolls in MATH 999.

Math 999, Ph.D. Research, is a research course for those students who are working on a doctoral thesis. As per departmental policy, Math 999 may only be taken after the student has passed the Preliminary Examination and is admitted to candidacy. (The written Qualifying Exam and the oral Specialty Exam together constitute the Graduate School's requirement for the Preliminary Exam).

Student Name (print) __________________________________________________________

Major Professor Name (print) __________________________________________________

Date Prelim passed: __________ Date student admitted to candidacy: _________________

Semester and Year permission requested to enroll: ________________________________

Number of Credit Hours ______________________________________________________

Other classes the student proposes to enroll in for that semester:

________________________  _________________________  _______________________

Professor: Please state the dissertation research topic and provide a brief syllabus or outline of the material you expect your student to research. It is very important to provide information on any texts or papers you require your student to read.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Signature of Major Professor _________________________________________________

Return this form to RETA