Graduate Business Education and Careers in Finance

Professor Roger Bey
Chairman, Department of Finance
University of Tulsa
Monday, September 17 @ 5:00 pm
121 Cardwell Hall

Abstract
Professor Bey’s presentation will focus on three major topics. One – career opportunities in finance for students who don’t have an undergraduate degree in business; two – characteristics of graduate business programs (MBA, Master’s in Financial Engineering, Masters in Financial Mathematics, and Master of Science in Finance); and three – the MS in Finance program at the University of Tulsa including the curriculum, admission standards, and financial aid (graduate assistantships, fellowships, and corporate internships).
